No. $\frac{99-101}{843-45}$ dated Bangalore 4th March 1896.

Order. The bungalow referred to in the above is on the private road which the Government in the Local Fund Department, recently took over from Mr. Collins. It will be most useful for travellers and for the planters of the neighbourhood. It is in a healthy situation. The Government therefore direct that the property be purchased, and maintained as a 2nd class Travellers Bungalow, with a small supply of crockery &c.- The Executive Engineer will take the necessary steps to effect the purchase, as soon as possible, and hand over the building to Revenue Department.—

II.— Provision will be made in the Final Budget for 1895/96 to meet the charges.

The

The Executive Engineer will supply the necessary furniture &c. according to the sanctioned scale.—
